Testimony of Dennis Hughes

Before Christ my life was heading in the wrong direction. I used to spend my time going to nightclubs and casinos. That lifestyle felt normal to me then, but it was empty and reckless. I was living for pleasure, no purpose. Looking back I can see how spiritually lost I really was.

Over time I experienced three life-threatening situations that shook me deeply. The first happened while driving a brand-new pickup truck. I fell asleep at the wheel and hit a boulder, totaling the truck. I walked away alive, which I now see as God's mercy.

The second was when I contracted Guillain-Barré syndrome and became paralyzed from the neck down. There was no medication or vaccine at that time. Doctors could not guarantee recovery. Yet the Lord restored me; He healed me.

The third happened when I ran out of gas on I-95. There was no shoulder. It was pitch dark. I was standing there helpless while tractor trailers sped past me. I panicked. I truly believed I was going to die. In that moment I cried out to Jesus Christ for help. Shortly after that, a state emergency vehicle arrived and replenished the gas. That experience stayed with me.

Through these events, I became deeply aware that my life had been spared more than once. God had preserved me for a reason. I turned to Jesus Christ in repentance, trusting Him not just in crisis but as Lord of my life.

Since then, my life has changed direction. I no longer chase the old lifestyle. I live with gratitude, purpose, and a desire to honor Christ, knowing that every day I have is a gift from Him. I also realized that I could not overcome sin and death without accepting Jesus into my heart.
